Sorority Donates to Clinic

Toys for the Long Beach Adelaide Tschator Clinic as well as a check for equipment were taken to the clinic by members of Zeta Chapter, Phi Sigma Phi Sorority, as part of the chapter's philanthropic program for the Christmas season.

The crippled children's clinic, which has been receiving support from the sorority throughout the year, will use the toys, not only to amuse the youngsters, but to aid them in restoring the use of arms and legs.

Headed by Mrs. Carl Opsahl and Mrs. R. P. Kellogg, president of the chapter, a group of 10 members, entertained the children following a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Opsahl, 2636 Easy street, Long Beach. Members visiting the clinic included Misses W. J. Bryan, V. L. Stalcup, J. J. Hixon, A. D. Scott, R. W. Gearhart, J. R. Jones, H. T. Rogers, R. L. Hutz, G. C. Tate, L. Sanders, and Mrs. Kellogg and Mrs. Opsahl.

Christmas toys for a needy Lomita family of four children as well as a donation to the national Cancer fund are included in the group's yuletide activities.

Lodge Party Held in San Pedro Monday

The annual Christmas party held Monday night by members of San Pedro Chapter, Women of the Moose and their families, was well attended and highlighted by an interesting program and the arrival of Santa Claus.

Boy Scout Troop 598, under the sponsorship of the Loyal Order of the Moose, presented a musical program: Mrs. Robert Baliff and her son, John Baliff, gave a puppet show; Bob and Bill Baliff were cast in a play titled "Twins of a Horse," and the following musical numbers: accordion solos by Frank Red-ew; piano selections, Robert Kennerson; violin numbers, and Howard Harper and Terry Craig sang several numbers.

Fruit and candy were distributed while the group awaited the arrival of Santa with his pack filled with gifts for all the children. Members of the chapter exchanged gifts and coffee and cake were served before the holiday event was over.

OES Chapter Enjoys Yule Party 15th

Members of Torrance Chapter 380, O.E.S. and several sojourning members of the order, assembled Thursday evening in Torrance Masonic Temple and after a brief business meeting, gathered around a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. One of Santa's helpers distributed, with much hilarious advice from the group, presents to everyone.

"The Star Points," Mabelle Babcock, Estella DesJardins, Dorothy Moore, Rose Schmidt, and Mabelle Spencer, whose decorative abilities were much in evidence in the banquet room, served refreshments which added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Worthy Matron Gladys Mothensell announced the date of the next meeting, which will be Thursday, January 5, and invited all members to attend.

The average man could accomplish twice as much in this world if he did not spend half his life in telling a woman how to do things.

Cub Scouts Enjoy Trip To Army Fort

A trip to Fort MacArthur in San Pedro was a fascinating and exciting experience for members of Cub Scout Pack 115C and their leaders Saturday.

Numbering 56, the entire group was conducted on a tour of both lower and upper reservations in two Army buses with time out for lunch in the mess hall.

During the afternoon the boys witnessed the firing of the mortar guns and target practice using smoke bombs.

Enjoy Gala Yule Party

The rumpus room at the Cota avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller was an attractive setting for a Christmas party given Sunday for the members of Torrance Breakfast Club and their guests.

Dinner at a local restaurant preceded the party, highlighting the enjoyable affair at Miller's were card play and an exchange of gifts.

Craven Baby Arrives In Maryland

Lt. and Mrs. Richard L. Craven of Lexington, Maryland, formerly of Harbor City, announce the birth of a son, William Dell, born November 21 at the Patuxent River Naval Hospital, Maryland.

Mrs. Craven is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McEwen of 1209 W. 215th street, Harbor City.

The six pound, one ounce baby just missed being born on his father's birthday, November 20, by two hours and thirty-five minutes.

The Cravens also have a daughter, four-year-old DeAnn Gale Craven.

Lt. Craven is at present attached to Electronics Test Division of Naval Air Test Center, Patuxent River, Maryland, establish their home in San Diego, where he is stationed.

LONA HANSON WEDS RAYMOND D. WATSON

In a simple ceremony performed earlier this month in Quartzsite, Arizona, Miss Lona Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hanson, 1608 W. 553rd street, recited vows to become the bride of Raymond D. Watson, United States Navy, son of Mrs. Carl Alexander of Levelland, Texas.

For her bridal attire the attractive bride chose a gown of white embroidered tulle, with which she wore a pearl necklace and white blossoms in her hair. Her only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. L. R. Hanson Jr. Mr. Hanson attended the bridegroom as best man.
